TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST PAUL THE APOSTLE PARISH

"No man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord cherishes the Church: For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church."

THE FATHERHOOD OF ST. JOSEPH

CHAPTER 7: JOSEPH'S FATHERHOOD

Excerpts

1. St. Joseph is commonly called the foster father of Jesus, a name certainly appropriate in a way and well deserved. For there can be no doubt but that he faithfully did his utmost to supply all the wants of Jesus; he provided Him with food and raiment and shelter. As far as it was in his power, he shielded Him from bodily harm and discomfort. He rescued Him from the plots of the ruthless Herod. He instructed him in the trade he himself plied, and so on ... But this fatherly care which he bestowed on the child Jesus is not sufficient to account for the juridical [official] relationship existing between Jesus and Joseph [nor] constitute the essential element of this fatherhood.

2. [Some] would call St. Joseph the adoptive father of the divine Child. Adoption ... means to take or receive as one's own child a minor who otherwise is a stranger [but] the child Jesus was not at all a stranger to St. Joseph: as supernatural offspring of the marriage of Mary and Joseph, He already belonged to the family ... Besides, ordinary common sense sees how incongruous is the idea of adoption of a high-born person by one of low estate, and, all the more so, of adoption of a divine person by a human person ... [St. Augustine wrote that] "Joseph, when without his intervention his wife bore him a son through the power of the Holy Ghost, accepted Him as his own beloved son given to him by God, and in a manner adopted Him, so that Jesus in a manner became his son, and this by a way more noble and perfect than elsewhere. Unless we prefer to say that Christ chose Joseph for His father and, as it were, made Himself his son."

3. By some more modern writers St. Joseph was styled the legal father of Jesus. [... But] here everything is lacking that is required for legal fatherhood.

4. Finally we have the well-known passage in Holy Scripture where St. Luke (3:23) speaks of "Jesus, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph." Hence St. Joseph is frequently called the putative [reputed] father of Jesus. [But St. Luke] intends merely to say that contemporary Jews thought that Joseph was the father of Jesus, but erroneously, inasmuch as they believed he was the natural father.

St. Joseph was given to understand that the Virgin Mother of God had not ceased to be his wife in consequence of the wonderful thing that had come to pass, but that she with her divine Child was rather given anew and entrusted definitely to him as husband and father. This is why the angel said [to Joseph]: "She shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call His name Jesus." ... The command given to Joseph is the same as the one given to Mary: to give the name to the Child. But as this is the right and duty of the parents, of the father as well as of the mother, we see that God Himself through His angel made it known that Joseph was and remained father of the Child, which with its mother now was definitely entrusted to Joseph's fatherly care.

God in His wise providence had destined Joseph to become father to Jesus in all respects as far as possible, with the sole exception, that is, of natural generation. [It seems that Joseph was invested with this fatherhood in] that the divine Child was given by God to both Mary and Joseph as the fruit of their virginal marriage.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Most gracious Heavenly Father,

We thank you for our earthly fathers, those to whom you have entrusted the responsibility to provide loving protection of their families and guidance of their children. We thank you, also, for our priests and bishops, whose spiritual fatherhood is so vital to the faith of your people.

May our earthly fathers imitate the manly courage of Abraham, Jesse and Joseph, and all the holy fathers of the past in providing wise counsel to the children you have given to their care. And may our spiritual fathers be guided by the examples of Saints Peter and Paul, all the Apostles and their saintly successors. Give them valiant faith in the face of confusion and conflict, hope in time of trouble and sorrow, and steadfast love for you, for their families, and for all your people throughout the world.

Assist all fathers of families, all spiritual fathers, and all Christian men, that through your Grace they may steadily grow in holiness and in knowledge and understanding of your Truth. May they generously impart this knowledge to those who rely on them.

As you, our Heavenly Father, so loved the world, sending your only Son to be our Savior and Redeemer, we ask you to help all men to imitate His fatherly gentleness and mercy toward those who are weak; His humility, perfect obedience to your Will, and fearless witness to your Truth. May their lives be examples to all of heroic faithfulness to you.

We ask your blessing on all those to whom you have entrusted fatherhood. May your Holy Spirit constantly inspire them with justice and mercy, wisdom and strength, fidelity and self-giving love. May they receive your Grace abundantly in this earthly life, and may they look forward to eternal joy in your presence in the life to come.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son and Our Lord, AMEN.

Priests' Retirement Fund

Dear friends,

The coronavirus pandemic was a major event that caught us by surprise. Just four months ago we never would have imagined what we have experienced.

There are also many little events that catch us by surprise. It might be a minor illness, surgery, or a family emergency. Or it might be something planned like a much needed vacation. These are events that pull a priest away from his parish. Our senior priests are the ones we turn to when we encounter these needs. After 40 years of full-time service to our diocese our senior priests are still ready to serve when called upon. And some of them serve as sacramental ministers in parishes every weekend. We couldn't get by without them. These dedicated men continue to step up and respond when needed.

The Father's Day collection supports the Diocese of Saginaw Priests' Retirement Fund which pays a pension to our priests after they retire from full-time ministry. Your gift helps to provide an income to our senior priests and it helps to ensure that those who retire in the future can count on that pension being there for them.

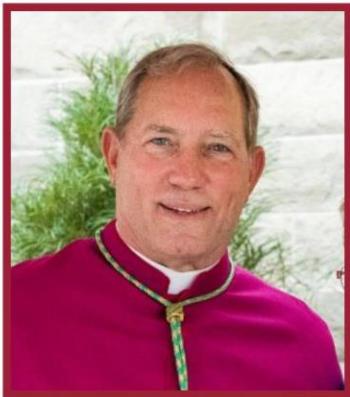

Thank you for your generosity and God bless you!

Father Peter J. Gaspeny
President, Diocese of Saginaw Priests' Retirement Association

When you donate to the Priests' Retirement Fund, your gift goes directly into the Catholic Diocese of Saginaw's priests' pension plan, where it is invested and held in a trust account. The pension plan provides for the monthly pension and medical benefits of our currently retired priests and helps fund the future retirement of our active priests.

"I am most grateful to our senior priests - the Diocese of Saginaw depends on them. Without these valued priests, the parishes would be unable to provide for the celebration of Masses and the sacraments needed for our people each week. We deeply appreciate that they choose to continue to share their life and ministry well beyond when they are eligible to retire."

Letter From Bishop Gruss Related to the Resumption of Masses

May 19, 2020

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy Easter! We continue to rejoice in the resurrection of Jesus in these remaining days of the Easter season. The seasons of Lent and Easter have been like no other that we have experienced. These past two months have been very challenging times. This pandemic and the requirements for social distancing has reshaped society. There will be no return to the “old” normal. A ‘new’ normal will immerge from this historic moment in history and in our Church.

There is no question that there is a real hunger and desire for the Faithful to return to the sacramental life of the Church. I write to you to share some good news and some words of caution as we move toward the reopening of our Churches.

As we know, the State of Michigan is allowing for the gradual opening of some businesses and activities as the number of coronavirus cases and deaths from it continue to decrease. We believe that the spiritual life of people is an essential element to life, and therefore, it is time to begin to gradually open this part of society for the communal celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

It is our plan to begin offering public Mass on Monday, May 25, 2020 in parishes that are prepared to do so. There will be the need to follow strict directives in order to diminish the possibility of a “second wave” of the coronavirus. The cooperation of everyone will be required to ensure the continued health and safety of everyone in our communities. The leadership of each parish must determine if the proper protocols and procedures are in place and are able to be carried out before a parish can resume public worship. These protocols and guidelines will require strict adherence for all public liturgies, including weddings, funerals and baptisms.

When you return to the celebration of the Eucharist, you will see things done differently, and things will feel different than when you last attended two months ago. It is imperative for all of us – pastors, parish life directors, parish staff, volunteers, and all the faithful – to work together during these times. We all know that this pandemic is not over, and therefore, each of us must do our part to help ensure the health and safety of everyone in our communities.

These liturgical Guidelines and Protocols are based upon current guidance issued by the World Health Organization (WHO) and U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other public health authorities. These guidelines also integrate the requirements of the Catholic Church teaching, liturgical law, and Canon law. These have been formulated with great care to preserve the respect and reverence due to the Holy Eucharist and the powerful liturgical sacramental symbolism of the rites of the Mass. For more information about these directives, click here.

It is very important to remember that this coronavirus does not discriminate, and no gathering of the People of God is immune to this indiscriminate evil. As we gather back for the celebration of the Eucharist, we must take every precaution, be patient with one another, and continue to make sacrifices for the greater good of all.

In the meantime, we continue to live the joy of the Resurrection. As I wrote in my Easter letter, the resurrection is not just a happy ending to a story. “It is the promise of love which helps us pass this difficult road. This comforts us and gives us strength.”

Let us continue to pray for the end of this pandemic, for those on the frontlines putting their lives on the line serving the needs of the sick, for those who have contracted this virus and for those who have lost their lives from it.

As you remain very present in my heart and prayers, I look forward to that day, coming soon, when we can literally gather around the altar of the Lord. Until then, may Our Mother, Mary of the Assumption, enfold us in her mantle of love and mercy.

Sincerely in the peace and joy of Christ,

Most Rev. Robert D. Gruss
Bishop of Saginaw

Diocese of Saginaw to resume public Masses on May 30; obligation to attend Mass lifted until Aug. 30

SAGINAW — Public Masses will resume for all parishes in the Dioceses of Saginaw on Saturday, May 30, but individual pastors may, at their discretion, begin celebrating Mass publicly as early as Monday, May 25, according to new directives issued by Bishop Robert D. Gruss.

As public Masses resume, Bishop Gruss says strict social distancing and safety guidelines must be in place in order to open for services.

“When you return to the celebration of the Eucharist, you will see things done differently, and things will feel different than when you last attended two months ago,” Bishop Gruss shared in a letter to the Faithful. “It is imperative for all of us – pastors, parish life directors, parish staff, volunteers, and all the faithful – to work together during these times. We all know that this pandemic is not over, and therefore, each of us must do our part to help ensure the health and safety of everyone in our communities.”

Hunger and Desire Among the Faithful

Acknowledging a hunger and desire among the Faithful to return to the sacramental life of the Church, Bishop Gruss expressed the need to continue practicing social distancing and rigorous sanitation.

“These past two months have been very challenging times,” Bishop Gruss said. “This pandemic and the requirements for social distancing has reshaped society. There will be no return to the ‘old’ normal. A ‘new’ normal will emerge from this historic moment in history and in our Church.”

Directives | All of the faithful over the age of 2 will be required to wear face coverings to Mass, keep at least six feet apart at all times when inside a parish church or on parish grounds (excluding those of the same household) and capacity inside churches may not exceed 20- 25 percent, according to the directives issued on May 19. The 25 percent figure follows state guidelines for other types of buildings, such as retail stores.

The bishop also announced that the Sunday obligation — the moral and canonical precept that requires weekly Mass attendance — would continue to be suspended for all of the faithful until at least Sunday, Aug. 30. Parishes are encouraged to continue offering Masses via live stream.

Gradual Reopening | This gradual reopening of churches for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist comes several months after the diocese suspended public liturgies in order to help stem the spread of COVID-19 virus.

As we see the State of Michigan allow for the gradual reopening of some businesses, as the number of coronavirus cases and deaths from it continue to decrease, the Church is making preparations as well.

An Essential Element to Life | “We believe that the spiritual life of people is an essential element to life, and therefore, it is time to begin to gradually open this part of society for the communal celebration of the Holy Eucharist,” Bishop Gruss said.

The directives offer suggestions about how to keep Mass attendance at 20-25 percent capacity, including scheduling Masses with greater frequency, allowing attendance on a first-come first-served, a rotation based on the first letter of last names or an online ticketing system.

Additionally, as the weather gets warmer, outdoor Masses are encouraged as a way to maintain social distancing.

Current Guidance | “These liturgical Guidelines and Protocols are based upon current guidance issued by the World Health Organization (WHO) and U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention \(CDC\) and other public health authorities,” Bishop Gruss said. “They also integrate the requirements of the Catholic Church teaching, liturgical law, and Canon law. These have been formulated with great care to preserve the respect and reverence due to the Holy Eucharist and the powerful liturgical sacramental symbolism of the rites of the Mass.”

Baptisms, weddings and funerals also may resume without individual permission, in keeping with social distancing rules. Non-liturgical gatherings on parish grounds should continue to be suspended, although pastors may grant special permission to groups of less than 10 people.

Prayers | “Let us continue to pray for the end of this pandemic, for those on the frontlines putting their lives on the line serving the needs of the sick, for those who have contracted this virus and for those who have lost their lives from it,” Bishop Gruss said.

“As we gather back for the celebration of the Eucharist, we must take every precaution, be patient with one another, and continue to make sacrifices for the greater good of all.

“In the meantime, we continue to live the joy of the Resurrection. As I wrote in my Easter letter, the resurrection is not just a happy ending to a story. It is the promise of love which helps us pass this difficult road. This comforts us and gives us strength.”
