NEW STAFF BIO'S:

Hello, I am Kristen Romo and I am the new Bookkeeper here at St. Paul's. I am very excited to join the staff and have been here since September 2020. I am happily married to my husband Mark of 21 years and we are blessed to have 2 children, Brandon and Brooke, who are both currently attending college. We also have a Goldendoodle, Lexi, who is our furry family member. I am a Western Michigan graduate—Go Broncos!—where I studied Engineering. I returned to school to study Accounting in order to fulfill my calling to manage finances for churches. I love cooking, watching Hallmark movies, shopping at Kohls, and spending time with my family.

READ TODAY'S DAILY READING HERE

Dear Parish Family,

Below are times for Holy Week liturgies throughout the area for your consideration.

I also want to clarify something briefly. While approaching me after Mass to schedule something in the future is bad timing, I want to let you all know that approaching me at that time to ask me for prayers, or to share good news with me is good timing. Please do not hesitate to ask for my prayers, and please know I daily offer Psalms, rosaries, and litanies for all of you.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CORNER

FIRST RECONCILIATION/FIRST COMMUNION

Holy Week! This week we pause to reflect on those last days that lead to the most glorious day for Christians - Easter. Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday and the Last Supper, Good Friday - the most solemn day of the Triduum and the year...And although Good Friday is a difficult day for us as we remember how Jesus was treated, how he suffered for us, his Death on the Cross - I am reminded that Good Friday paved the way for Easter Sunday; we could not have one without the other. I entered the Church at Easter Vigil on April 3, 1999, at St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Saginaw, Michigan, and consider it the best day of my life, for it was then that my life really began. Please know that this year as I pray my personal prayers of thanksgiving for all that day led to in my life, I count your families among my greatest blessings! Sharing my faith with our youth and families is my privilege.
